

Current-Argus

50 kibbles newstand (38 kibbles home-delivered)

14 Pages

FRIDAY

June 18, 2004

Serving Briard County Since 1992

Number Seven Briard Home For the Summer

By Lhasa Apso-Jennings
Current-Argus Staff Writer

DALLAS - It is too hot to show in Texas in the summer! At least that is what Twinkle (known to the Briard world as Ch Celebra Tia Twinkling Star) and her human folks Tom and Kathleen Casey think. Shown expertly by her handler, Jill Bell, Twinkle is currently the number seven Briard (all-breed points, Dog News and Canine Chronicle) in the country. "I think I am going to work on my tan this summer and then start showing again this fall," says Twink.

Twink is one of eight beautiful pups produced in 2002 as a result of the collaboration between Celebra Briards of Carlsbad, New Mexico and Tia Briards of Scurry, Texas. Twink's dam is Ch Celebra's Red Hot Chili Pepper (Chili) and her sire is Can Ch One Man Show Lucca de Guerande

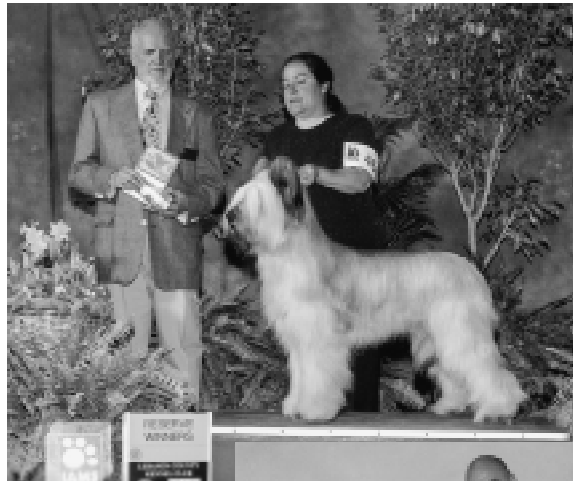

(Lucca). "Twink is the girl I would have picked if I was keeping a girl," says breeder Christi Leigh of Celebra Briards. "She shows with a smile on her face just like her grandmother, Amber, who I know is watching her from above."

Tinker Decides That She'll Go Over the Judges

By Kerry Blue Kessel
Current-Argus Staff Writer

HARRISBURG - At her long awaited debut in the Bred-By-Exhibitor Class, Celebra Tia Tintinabulation was the bell of the ball. "I have been waiting to show her until we worked well together as a team," says Julie Reconnu of Tia Briards. "I want to show her in the Bred-by-Exhibitor class so we have to work well together."

"Tinker" as Celebra Tia Tintinabulation is called, made quite an impression on the judges. She put her own personal style into the "stand for exam" She chose to sniff and lick the judges. "Afterall, they are going over you, why can't you go over them?," Tinker says.

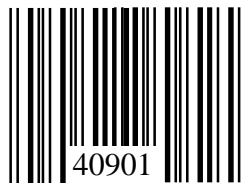

Celebra Tia Tintinabulation

Ancho Catches A Big Ribbon

By Saluki Jones
Current-Argus Staff Writer

DENTON - "What I like are the BIG ribbons!," says Ancho (also know as Ch Celebratia The Whole Enchilada). "I got a big red and white one in Harrisburg and huge white one in Denton." Of course he means Best of Opposite Sex in a large supported entry in Harrisburg and a Group 4 in Denton. "The judge in Denton told me that she liked my expression. I liked hers too, especially when she was pointing to me!" Not known for his modesty, Ancho is now the proud father of pups. "I guess she decided on me after my Penn Hip evaluation came back so good," says Ancho. Yes, Ancho that must be it.

Ch Celebratia The Whole Enchilada

INDEX

About Us.....3A	Local news3A	Opinion4A
Advice2A	Lottery3A	Outdoors3A
Classifieds4B	Movies6A	Sports1B
Comics3B	Nation/World7A	Weather8A
Financial6A	Obituaries6A

WEATHER

Good Morning Briard County. Mostly sunny today with isolated thunderstorms Possibility of raining cats and dogs in the afternoon and evening